Cruising on Lough Erne

relax... amidst breathtaking flora and fauna

Picture the scene. Your very own piece of Fermanagh Lakelands' natural beauty. Experience the extraordinary sights and sounds that you have always aspired to on the south facing shores of Lower Lough Erne. Red deer abound, freshwater pike, salmon, trout and roach.

Breeding birds in abundance - snipe, curlew, sparrowhawks and long-eared owls; all inhabitants of the shore-line communities of reedbeds and wet woodlands.

Fermanagh for many - Donegal on your doorstep

Fermanagh Lakelands are well worth exploring. Wonderful waterways framed by stunning landscapes and populated with memorable landmarks and high octane activities. Enchanting myths, legends, traditions and history at every turn. Castle Coole and Florence Court offer wonderful walks and fine interiors. Belleek Pottery holds a very special place in the cultural heritage of Fermanagh.

The Marble Arch Caves boast some of the finest natural landscapes in Ireland and offer a window into Fermanagh's 650 million year past.

Golf courses are well over par - Lough Erne Resort, Castle Hume, Enniskillen, Ashwood and Black Lion making Fermanagh a great place to play - a great place to stay. Fishing on the Lakelands is an anglers paradise of game and coarse angling.

Waterskiing and wakeboarding now feature prominently on Lough Erne for those who prefer their weekends with a little more 'inverted air'.

From Water's Edge, it is 5 miles to the Donegal border, making Donegal town 20 miles and the famous resorts and beaches of Rossnowla and Bundoran 15 miles away.

Cycling, golfing, cruising, wakeboarding, sailing, fishing or simply doing nothing - it's your retreat. Your place. Your choice to be as active as you want while you recharge your batteries.
